

Hopes

By Lily

Hope is a dream, a wish, a promise.

I hope to get a second cat,

But that's just a dream in my head.

Hope feels like an explosion.

Hope is a goal; a goal to be a horse rider.

Hope is an achievement.

Hope is like a field of wonderful flowers.

Hope is like a sunset in my mind, like a dream

Hope is a friend to me.

What will life be with no hope?

Miserable, long, grey days.

Hope is filled up with love, belief, faith and promises.

Always believe in your hopes and goals.

Hope is confidence.
